VOLUNTEER TESTIMONIAL

Imad Khan

Business Consultant, LCVR Solutions Inc.

Testimonial

The IAM is dedicated to advancing knowledge and best practices in asset management for individuals, organizations, and society at large. I have been involved with IAM for over 20 years, collaborating with experts from worldwide. As a registered Asset Management professional, my volunteer work with various IAM products and services not only contributes to my growth in the field but also supports the advancement of asset management. Each time I participate in revising a product or service, I learn something new. I genuinely enjoy my work with IAM and plan to stay involved for many more years to come.
