VOLUNTEER TESTIMONIAL

Pierre-Michael Delamotte
Asset Management Consultant

Testimonial

At first I became a volunteer of the IAM with the idea of adding my own and humble contribution to the extensive IAM body of knowledge. What became quickly apparent is that volunteering allowed me to meet and exchange with dedicated and committed IAM members and to widen my understanding of Asset Management to different perspectives from other sectors, countries and continents. This makes volunteering with the IAM so interesting and enriching, and this is the aspect of volunteering that I love the most!
