VOLUNTEER TESTIMONIAL

Testimonial

In my case, my involvement with IAM since the 1990s has been primarily about laying the foundations for Asset Management, especially in communities outside the UK. We were and are volunteers with our own idea and ambition to make this profession thrive, which today has its own structure. It is the volunteers who drive our plans and make us do things better and differently, every day. Don't wait for someone at IAM to tell you whether or not you can be useful as a volunteer. Be one of them and success will be ours.
